RURAL IMPACT

Harnessing the Potential of Social Entrepreneurship for Rural Economies

"Rural Impact" communicates a clear message: the project is dedicated to cultivating positive change and promoting sustainable development in rural areas through the vehicle of youth social entrepreneurship. This approach not only empowers young individuals to overcome economic challenges but also actively contributes to a more sustainable, inclusive, and socially responsible European future. The partnership comprises of 6 partners from 6 european countries.

A Local Solution to a European Issue:

Social entrepreneurship serves as a multifaceted solution to support young people in addressing future economic challenges, aligning with key European policies and initiatives such as the European Green Deal, Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs), and the European Pillar of Social Rights. Young entrepreneurs can innovate sustainable solutions, promoting ecofriendly practices and contributing to a circular economy.

By encouraging youth social entrepreneurship in rural economies, tailored to the specific needs of their communities, these social enterprises become a vehicle for economic empowerment.
